

Wilmott.com Access Instructions

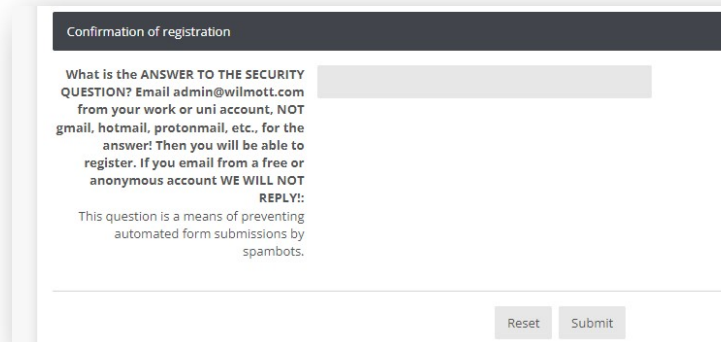

In order to see the secret CQF Forum and to become a member of the Wilmott Inner Circle you need a wilmott.com login.

This is in no way compulsory. If you don't want to become a member of wilmott.com (and it is free!) then ignore all below. You will receive the print copy of the magazine anyway.

However, if you are happy to become a member follow these instructions carefully

These instructions refer to a wilmott.com account/username. This is not any username/account/login/ID that you have with the CQF.

1. If you don't already have a wilmott.com username, read on. If you do, you can skip to Step 2.
 - a. To get a username you need to register here: <https://forum.wilmott.com/ucp.php?mode=register>
 - b. You will have to register with a work or university email address. We do not accept gmail, hotmail, protonmail, qq, ... and hundreds of other free/anonymous addresses. This is a security issue to minimize spamming and trolling
 - c. The Answer to the Security Question that is part of the registration process is "Buy Paul's new book!" without the "s. Again, this is a security feature. Do not tell anyone else this Answer or we will have to change it with inconvenience to other delegates

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Confirmation of registration". It contains a text input field for the security question answer. Below the field, there is explanatory text: "What is the ANSWER TO THE SECURITY QUESTION? Email admin@wilmott.com from your work or uni account, NOT gmail, hotmail, protonmail, etc., for the answer! Then you will be able to register. If you email from a free or anonymous account WE WILL NOT". Below this, it says "REPLY!:" and "This question is a means of preventing automated form submissions by spambots.". At the bottom right, there are "Reset" and "Submit" buttons.

- d. Check your email! You will receive an activation email from admin@wilmott.com. Click on the link and your account will be activated. Now go to Step 2.

2. If you do have a wilmott.com account (perhaps you just went through Step 1 or you already had one):

- a. Email Orinta, orinta.juknaite@fitchlearning.com, telling her your wilmott.com username. She will confirm that you are a current CQF delegate and your username will be given access to the CQF Forum and the Wilmott Inner Circle. This might take a few days. We are all very busy at the start of a new cohort
- b. Introduce yourself to other CQF delegates here: <https://forum.wilmott.com/viewforum.php?f=32> !!!

Please do not email Orinta about wilmott.com until after you have got your wilmott.com account/username. Remember that your wilmott.com account and username are different from your CQF logins.
